

Rannerdale- Thanks to Roger Thomas for what was, by all accounts, a challenging event at Rannerdale, especially controls 2 to 3! On the Long 3.2km course Chris Naylor took the win in 34:56, with Alan Irving 2nd in 36:42 and Matthew Atkinson (IND) 3rd in 37:37. Making up the remainder of the top ten were Mike Harrison (4th), Jamie Rennie (5th), Simon Hunter (6th), Niamh Hunter (7th and first female), Isaac Hunter (8th), Joe Goodwin (9th) and Martin Skinner (10th). Daisy Rennie was 2nd female and Susan Skinner was 3rd female.

On the 2.2km Short course, Bob Barnby took the win in 41:17, with Issy Sunley 2nd in 44:57, and Pip Conlon 3rd in 46:51. The rest of the top ten were Margaret MacKenzie (4th), Rebecca Crellin (5th), Panny Kingsland (6th), Sam McLoughlin (7th), Richard Cummings (8th), Ann Cummings (9th) and Roger Jackson (10th). On the Novice course, Hiroki Holmes took the win, with Sola Holmes (2nd) and Kyra Green (3rd.). Full results are available on the website.

This week's event is at Scale Hill. Entries are open on RaceSignup and close at 23:59 on Tuesday.

Upcoming night events-

20/01/22 - Leaps Beck

27/01/22 - Sale Fell and Hogg Wood

Club Chase - Low Rigg

Thanks to Ann Burbidge for planning a very enjoyable and hotly contested Club Chase on Low Rigg, and for all those who helped with the event. Thanks also to those providing soup, cakes and hot drinks, and for the generous donations to junior funds. The use of Liz's horse box was a welcome addition (especially when it was raining), although a slight mishap with one of the stoves led to a small fire issue which was ably dealt with by Lyndsey Ashworth without the need to call on the local fire brigade!

As you will know by now, winners are the first people back on their respective courses. On the yellow, Sola Holmes took the win; on Light Green, Hannah Birkinshaw was first, with Toby Heppell 2nd, on Green, Janette McHendry was first, with Daisy Rennie first on Blue and Jonty Goodwin first on Brown. The overall winner was Hannah Birkinshaw who was the first back, ahead of the whole field. Well done Hannah! (Sorry to those who were missed in the group photo).

Reminder for Upcoming Events (Note closing dates or cheapest fee deadlines are close on several of these events).
