There is still time to enter, and you do not have to run everyday!

Final pre-entry closing date for entries is 24th July, and remember offers of help for the WCOC Day to Mike Harrison. (See Later). It makes planning so much easier if people commit to help early.

The plans for WCOC's day are in hand and if you have offered to help you should be hearing from someone shortly to confirm what task you have been allocated and timings etc.

If you have not already volunteered to help but are able to do so then I am sure Mike Harrison will be glad of extra people. It is also WCOC's job to tidy up the event area afterwards so please plan to stay behind to help with this if you are able - many hands make light work!
