Talent North Squad

The squad were training in the South Lakes terrain this weekend. They were based at Great Tower, and the aim of the weekend was to look at orienteering basics. Training took place at Great Tower on Saturday and then due to the weather conditions necessitating a change of plan, took place in Blakeholme today.

Although sadly the conditions caused the cancellation of the Galoppen, the snowy weather did result in some stunning views of the terrain. (Thanks to Jo Matthew the photos).
