Keswick Mountain Festival

The club partnered with Berghaus to provide some orienteering at the festival at the weekend. The weather and high winds had other ideas, and managed to close the whole thing down on Sunday morning. The Saturday was quite successful with a few people doing a course in Cockshot Woods, and about 80 had a go at the Maze-O. Thanks to Steve Birkinshaw for his efforts getting the show up and running, and to a good handful of club members who staffed the courses. Perhaps we can have another go next year. The Maze proved very popular!

Cumbria Schools' Championships 2017
